It's an excellent hedge against inflation because its price usually rises when the cost of living increases. The price also rises when the dollar declines. Gold should be part of every investment portfolio. Read on to learn about the best ways to buy gold. Gold BullionGold bullion, available in gold bars and gold bullion coins, includes items that are bought strictly for investment. Gold bullion coins and bars are minted by many national mints in major countries around the world. One-, 10- and 100-ounce bars are popular. You can also buy gold collectible coins, which can range from 19th century circulated coins to Disney collectibles that are produced today. Collectible coins are priced higher than the identical size gold bullion coins.Gold ETFsA gold ETF, or exchange-traded fund, is a commodity ETF that focuses on one commodity: gold. More than 32 gold ETFs, managed by gold experts, are traded in United States financial markets. With an ETF, you can own small amounts of numerous different investments within a single fund. Therefore, you get diversification even if you don't invest a lot of money. You can buy a single share of an ETF for less than $100.Gold ETNsA gold exchange-traded note (ETN) is a product designed to track the price of gold. The value of a gold ETN is dependent on the movements of a stock index or other benchmark. ETNs were created by Barclays investment bank in 2006, and they have become an alternative to ETFs. Contrary to ETFs, ETNs don't actually own anything. They are debt notes that include a promise to pay an amount on the maturity day.Gold Mining StocksYou can invest in shares of gold mining companies. More than 300 gold mining companies are listed and publicly traded. With gold mining stocks, you're making a bet on gold prices. As the value of gold becomes higher than a miner's cost of production, profitability moves up dramatically. The growth and return in a gold mining stock depends on the expected future earnings of the company as well as on the value of gold.Buy OnlineIf you're buying gold for the first time, it's a good idea to invest in gold bullion coins. They are highly liquid, secure, convenient and budget-friendly. There are several reputable online companies that buy and sell gold as well as silver and other precious metals. APMEX, the world's largest online retailer of precious metals, offers a wide variety of products. You can also buy gold from multiple sites online. Light and medium pink shades are the best picks for everyday wear, as they give your lips that “YLB” (your lips but better) look. But pink doesn't always have to be on the subtle side. You can also go bold with a hot, bright, or neon pink for days when you really want to stand out from the crowd. That's why we wouldn't be surprised if you keep more than one pink lipstick in your makeup bag. Beyond choosing between shades of pink, there's also the formula to consider. These days, you've got quite a few to select from, including liquid lipstick for serious staying power, cream lipstick for a work-appropriate look, matte lipstick for a totally on-trend appearance, and more. Here are our picks of the best pink lipsticks across the spectrum. What We Like Comes in multiple finishes Cool packaging Hydrating formula Goes on smoothly What We Don't Like This lipstick formula receives top honors from us for a variety of reasons. It applies smoothly—no dragging or skipping—and feels like you're not wearing anything on your lips, all the while delivering an incredible color payoff. Plus, the formula is hydrating, thanks to ingredients like aloe vera, and jojoba, and avocado oils. Disobedient is a gorgeous medium pink cream shade with a satin finish, which you can layer for more intensity. Shade Range: 41 | Formula: Cream | Finish: Satin | Size: 0.1 oz. | Cruelty-Free: Yes | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Rich, smooth texture Goes on smoothly Pigmented What We Don't Like You don't have to break the bank for a quality pink lipstick. In fact, you don't even have to spend $10. This budget-friendly pick performs just as well as its more expensive counterparts. Customers rave about the rich and smooth formula, which is loaded with hydrating ingredients like coconut oil and aloe vera. Bombshell Pink lives up to its name—it's an eye-catching cool-toned fuchsia hue that would look gorgeous when paired with an LBD. Shade Range: 48 | Formula: Cream | Finish: Cream | Size: 0.1 oz. | Cruelty-Free: Yes | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Creamy and not drying Inexpensive Works for many skin tones What We Don't Like Packaging could be improved Maybelline sought out to create a pink lipstick that looks great on everyone by testing shades on 50 different skin tones. They succeeded with Pink for Me, a medium rosy mauve color that has slightly warm undertones. It's muted, making it the ideal workday lipstick, and the creamy formula contains honey nectar to ensure the product applies smoothly and doesn't dry out your lips. Shade Range: 7 | Formula: Cream | Finish: Satin | Size: 0.2 oz. | Cruelty-Free: No | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Moisturizing formula Keeps lips soft and nourished Pigmented What We Don't Like Sure, shelling out more than $50 for a lipstick may feel steep, but trust us when we say that Empire from Tom Ford's luxe lineup of lip colors is totally worth it—the slightly coral-tinged warm pink makes the lips totally pop. Not only is the formula long-wearing, but it's infused with soja seed extract. Brazilian murumuru butter, and chamomilla flower oil to create the dreamiest creamy texture. We love that it keeps your lips hydrated all day long. Plus, the packaging is so sleek and pretty, you'll want to keep it out of your purse and on display. Shade Range: 21 | Formula: Cream | Finish: Satin | Size: 0.1 oz. | Cruelty-Free: No | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Chic packaging Shape helps define lips Wears comfortably What We Don't Like When it comes to choosing the right shade of pink for your skin tone, celebrity makeup artist Janice Daoud suggests those with fairer skin opt for brighter, reddish pinks. One fool-proof option we love is this electric pink from YSL, which reads almost red and features an innovative square bullet shape to allow for a more precise application. The long-wear formula is highly pigmented and feels incredibly light and comfortable on the lips, despite its matte finish. Shade Range: 19 | Formula: Cream | Finish: Matte | Size: 0.1 oz. | Cruelty-Free: No | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Goes on smoothly Pigmented Keeps lips soft and nourished What We Don't Like Daoud recommends warm orange pinks for medium skin tones, and this slightly coral hot pink from Uoma Beauty does just the trick. It glides on silky smooth to deliver vibrant, matte pigment in just one swipe. Plus, its formula is infused with wild mango butter and promises to keep your lips hydrated and soft. Shade Range: 16 | Formula: Cream | Finish: Matte | Size: 0.1 oz. | Cruelty-Free: Yes | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Makes teeth appear brighter Easy to apply Long-wearing What We Don't Like Go big or go home with this neon lip crayon from Lady Gaga's Haus Laboratories. Hot Rod is a cool fuchsia with blue undertones, which means it will not only make your lips pop, but it'll help your teeth look whiter and brighter, too. While this electrifying shade is a bold choice for all skin tones, Daoud mentions that bright fuchsias like this one look especially great on deeper skin tones. Shade Range: 22 | Formula: Crayon | Finish: Matte | Size: 0.1 oz. | Cruelty-Free: Yes | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Pigmented Keeps lips soft and nourished Buildable What We Don't Like This shade is a cult favorite among beauty aficionados—in fact, Daoud counts this as one of her all-time favorite pinks for its ability to look great on all skin tones—and we have to admit we're totally smitten with it ourselves. For starters, the long-wear formula includes a blend of moringa oil and passion fruit seed oil and promises to deliver incredible color payoff and leave lips feeling soft. Now about that color: Schiap is a fuchsia-pink with a semi-matte finish that lasts for hours and would pair amazingly with an all-black ensemble in the winter or colorful garb in the summer. Shade Range: 38 | Formula: Cream | Finish: Semi-Matte | Size: 0.1 oz. | Cruelty-Free: No | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Pigmented Creamy and not drying Wears comfortably What We Don't Like Anything that makeup legend Pat McGrath creates is pure gold, and this cult-favorite matte lipstick is a prime example. The richly pigmented formula is miraculously lightweight, leaving behind a pillowy soft finish that never feels dry or chalky. While the full offering includes a number of pink and pink-tinged hues, our favorite would have to be Polaroid Pink: a soft, baby pink with blue undertones. Shade Range: 28 | Formula: Cream | Finish: Matte | Size: 0.1 oz. | Cruelty-Free: No | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Long-wearing and smudge-proof Pigmented Dries quickly What We Don't Like Liquid lipsticks have a reputation for being long-lasting, but we're convinced that Beauty Bakerie's Matte Lip Whips would survive the apocalypse. The smudge-proof and waterproof formula stays put all day long—even after downing a greasy meal—and more importantly, it never ends up feeling dry or cakey. Versailles is a pretty berry-sienna that's subtle, making for a great everyday neutral pink that'll last you from morning to night. Shade Range: 21 | Formula: Liquid | Finish: Matte | Size: 0.1 oz. | Cruelty-Free: Yes | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Goes on smoothly Not sticky Pigmented What We Don't Like Contains BHT and mineral oil There's a reason one of these glosses from NYX sells every 15 seconds—the buttery-smooth, non-sticky formula stays put all day and works hard to keep the lips nourished and conditioned. The extensive 24-shade offering includes a number of pinks ranging from pastels to fuchsias, but we're especially fond of Eclair, a true light pink that looks great on just about everyone. Just keep in mind that while these glosses are high shine, their color payoff is on the sheerer side. Shade Range: 24 | Formula: Gloss | Finish: Shiny | Size: 0.3 oz. | Cruelty-Free: Yes | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Works on many skin tones Rich, creamy texture Chic packaging What We Don't Like This super creamy lipstick from Smashbox glides on like a dream thanks to its built-in primer, while the peptides and ceramides in the formula help to keep your lips smooth, soft, and supple. We're big fans of Literal Queen, a soft, warm pink that's on the neutral side, making for a great everyday shade that's not too in-your-face. Shade Range: 15 | Formula: Cream | Finish: Satin | Size: 0.1 oz. | Cruelty-Free: Yes | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Dries quickly Goes on smoothly Wide shade range What We Don't Like This lip stain goes on smoothly with a creamy texture but magically dries down to a silky stain. While lip stains often get a rep for being drying, that's not the case with this one. That's because the formula is chock full of avocado oil, which moisturizes lips, preventing dryness and stickiness. Dare to Be Pink is a beautiful medium pink with a matte finish. Shade Range: 79 | Formula: Stain | Finish: Matte | Size: 0.2 oz. | Cruelty-Free: No | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Reasonably priced Rich, creamy texture Long-wearing What We Don't Like Who says pastels have to be reserved for spring? We're here to tell you pastel pink can be worn year-round—if you find the right lipstick. Saint Germain is just right: It veers slightly purple for a fashion-forward look. “This shade is great for everyday wear since it's a softer color,” adds Daoud, who counts this shade as one of her favorites. Plus, MAC's cream formula is nourishing and includes ingredients like beeswax and jojoba seed oil. Reviewers note the lipstick's creamy texture, consistent color application, and long-lasting wear. Shade Range: 42 | Formula: Cream | Finish: Semi-Matte | Size: 0.1 oz. | Cruelty-Free: No | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Pigmented Hydrating formula Buildable What We Don't Like On days you want your lips to really pop, it's time to turn your attention to bright pink lipstick, like this one. Bite Beauty's formula is one of our go-to's because it comes in so many high-impact shades, and is infused with vitamins and omega oils. It promises to keep lips looking young and smooth. Strawberry Froze is a shockingly bright, cool-toned fuchsia that has a creamy texture and long-lasting finish. Shade Range: 3 | Formula: Stain | Finish: Satin-Matte | Size: 0.1 oz. | Cruelty-Free: Yes | Byrdie Clean: No What We Like Beautiful packaging Has a luminous finish Buildable What We Don't Like On the days we're aiming for a subtler look, we turn to Gucci's Rouge à Lèvres Voile range of lipsticks. Great for when we just want a hint of hydrating color—think of these as a tinted lip balm, but better—these leave the lips with a soft and shiny wash of color. Our favorite shade is Millicent Rose, a medium rosy pink with cool undertones that, because it's so sheer, looks great on all skin tones. Shade Range: 18 | Formula: Cream | Finish: Radiant | Size: 0.1 oz. | Cruelty-Free: No | Byrdie Clean: No It's tough to pick favorites here, but we'd have to go with Urban Decay's Vice Lipstick in Disobedient (view at Sephora) as our number one pick. This gorgeous medium pink is creamy, buildable, and looks great on everyone—plus, it's infused with aloe and hydrating oils that keep the lips soft and smooth. Next up is Pat McGrath Lab's MatteTrance Lipstick in Polaroid Pink (view at Sephora), the best matte baby pink. It has excellent color payoff and leaves behind the softest finish without ever drying out the lips. And finally, you just can't go wrong with Covergirl's Exhibitionist Lipstick Cream in Bombshell Pink (view at Amazon). This cool-toned fuchsia makes a serious statement has a beautifully smooth, hydrating formula—all for under $10. Not all shades of pink will work for everyone, so Daoud recommends paying attention to undertones. “Knowing your undertone is important, as well as the undertone of the lipstick,” she says. “For instance, if you're a cooler undertone, you'll want to choose a pink with a blue undertone.” Those with warm undertones will find a better match with fuchsias and pinks that read slightly red or orange, while those with neutral undertones can get away with almost any shade. While undertones play an important role in finding the best pink, Daoud also recommends basing your decision on your skin tone—especially when it comes to bolder hues. “Deeper skin tones look best with brighter fuchsia shades of pink, while medium skin tones look great with warmer orange-pinks,” she says. “Lighter skin tones look best in brighter reddish pinks.” While this rule can apply to any color family, it's important to keep a lipstick's pigment payoff and finish in mind when shopping for your best match. For example, if you're not sure if a particular shade will work for your skin tone and undertone, know that a sheer finish has the potential to look more complementary than a bold, pigmented matte. Can you wear pink lipstick daily? In short, yes. However, it can be more comfortable to wear lipstick that will keep your lips hydrated. For example, matte formulas tend to be drying so you can try applying a lip balm underneath to make sure your lips won't dry out during the day. If you like to keep your makeup routine minimal and don't want the extra step of adding a lip balm, look out for hydrating formulas that include aloe, jojoba oil, avocado oil, and more.
